

18 André & Michel Quenard, Les Eboulis de la Savoyarde, Chignin, Savoie, France 2018 89

£15 Roberson

Could anything be more refreshing than a crisp white from French alpine country? Michel Quenard makes characterful wines from his quality-focused family domaine, and this Jacquère has a rare density and weight, a lovely stewed apple and raw yoghurt character. A lovely food wine, ideal with a hunk of comté cheese.

Drink 2020-2022 Alc 11.5% ➤

18

13 Casa Silva, Cool Coast Sauvignon Gris, Paredones, Colchagua, Chile 2018 90

£12.99-£14.95 Amps, Cheers, DeBourgh, Palmers Wine Store, Penistone Wine Cellars, Roberts & Spight
Sauvignon Gris is like a cross between the tangy green flavour of Sauvignon Blanc and the honeyed richness of Pinot Gris. Chile does a fine line in it and this is an engaging, fresh yet complex style with notes of roasted peas, honey and arise from the coastal vineyards of Paredones. Vibrant. Drink 2020-2022 Alc 12.5%

14 Gianni Tessari, Monte Tenda, Soave Classico, Veneto, Italy 2018 90

£14.95 Jeroobams
There's Soave and there's Soave. Ditch the bland, infinitely forgettable stuff and reach instead for this lemony, peachy, leesy Soave that's bursting with character and charm. Hints of tangerine rind and a serious texture make it very food-friendly and engaging. Drink 2020-2021 Alc 12%

15 Langlois-Chateau, Sancerre, Loire, France 2018 90

£16-£19 Jean-Claude, D'Arcy Wine Merchants, Divine Fine Wines, Jaded Palates, RD Wines
Pristine aromas of nettles, fresh lime and gooseberry emerge in stately fashion from this elegantly rendered Sauvignon. Langlois-Chateau is based in Sancerre but makes wines from all across the Loire. This Sancerre is serious and dry, with fresh acidity and stony, lime-streaked flavours. Drink 2020-2022 Alc 12%

16 Mt Difficulty, Target Gully Medium Riesling, Bannockburn, Central Otago, New Zealand 2017 90

£18.99 The Wine Reserve
An accessible summery Riesling that marries refreshing apple acidity with generous fruit succulence and sweetness. The result is an off-dry style that is bright and engaging, with flavours of green pear and toffee apple. Drink 2020-2023 Alc 10.4%

17 Pascal Jolivet, Attitude Sauvignon Blanc, Loire, France 2018 90

£12.99 Waitrose Cellar
This is pretty decent value for a complex, cultured Loire Sauvignon with notes of roasted citrus, candle wax and fresh peas. The generous texture, gentle hints of raw butter and spicy finish give it character and intrigue. A serious, mineral style with plenty of wine for the price. Drink 2020-2021 Alc 12.5%

18 André & Michel Quenard, Les Eboulis de la Savoyarde, Chignin, Savoie, France 2018 89

£15 Roberson
Could anything be more refreshing than a crisp white from French alpine country? Michel Quenard makes characterful wines from his quality-focused family domaine, and this Jacquère has a rare density and weight, a lovely stewed apple and raw yoghurt character. A lovely food wine, ideal with a hunk of comté cheese. Drink 2020-2022 Alc 11.5% ➤